In the Fall of 2004, Allison Burchyett of Southaven and Mike Meyers of Our Lady Academy approached the MAC with the vision of having a Volleyball All-Star Game. After learning of the love and passion that both coaches had for the game, the MAC with the leadership of Coach Burchyett and Coach Meyers, hosted the 1st annual Volleyball All-Star games in the summer of 2005. Coach Burchyett and Coach Meyers continue to be very active in helping organize this All-Star game.

A special "Thanks" to these coaches for the vision that they had to grow the sport of volleyball.

VOLLEYBALL HISTORY

- 2005 The MAC hosted the 1st annual All-Star Volleyball game between the East and West. The game was played at Madison Central High School. The Best Offensive Player was Lialah Putnam of Olive Branch High School. The Best Defensive Player was Lauren Miller of Southaven. In the 1st all-star volleyball match, the squads were divided into an East-West format with the East defeating the West 3 games to 1 in a best of 5 series.
- 2006 The 2nd annual All-Star Volleyball game was moved to A.E. Wood Coliseum, on the campus of Mississippi College, in Clinton, MS. Winning the Best Offensive Player was Brittany Wright of Madison Central and the Best Defensive Player was Alex Cox of Desoto Central. The match was changed to the traditional North-South format in 2006 with the South defeating the North 3-0 by scores of 25-16, 25-21, and 25-16.
- 2007 The 3rd annual All-Star Volleyball game was played in Clinton, MS on the campus of Mississippi College at the A.E. Wood Coliseum. The Best Offensive Player of the game was Mollee Williams of Southern while Mollye Ward of Oak Grove was chosen the Best Defensive Player. The North claimed a 3-0 match victory.
- 2008 The 4th annual All-Star Volleyball game was played at A.E. Wood Coliseum on the campus of Mississippi College. Claire Franks of Olive Branch was named the North Most Outstanding player. The South's Most Outstanding Player was Christina Atwood of Vanleave. The North defeated the South 3-1 by scores of 22-25, 25-11, and 25-16.
- 2009 The South evened the overall series at 2-2 with a 2-1 win in the 5th annual match at the A. E. Wood Coliseum at Mississippi College in Clinton. The South won the opener 25-16, dropped the second contest 21-25, and then claimed victory with a 25-18 score in the third and deciding game. Samantha Overbeck of Long Beach served eight straight points in the first game and was named Most Outstanding Player for the South. Danielle Brown of Olive Branch was chosen MVP for the North squad.
- 2010 A change in the All-Star format featured two simultaneous matches played at the 6th annual match at the A. E. Wood Coliseum at Mississippi College. In the games featuring All-Star seniors the North swept the South 25-16, 25-17, and 30-28. In the games featuring All-Star junior players, the South defeated the North 25-17, 22-25, and 25-15. With the split wins, the series remains tied at 3-3 in the current format which switched from East-West to North-South in 2006. In the junior games, Southaven's Tolly Reynolds was selected as the Outstanding Player for the North while Hancock's Victoria Nutting was named the South's Outstanding Player. The game balls for the junior games, which were selected by the team members for the player exhibiting the best attitude, work ethic, and team spirit were the North's Brianna Davis of Lake Cormorant and the South's Presley Owens of Vanleave. In the senior games, game balls by the team were awarded to the North's Sheri Eubanks of Southaven and Vanleave's Dannielle Taft. The North's Outstanding senior player was Center Hill's Ashley Saunders while the South's Outstanding senior player was Kirsty Schmitt of Our Lady Academy.
- 2011 The North overpowered the South in three straight games by scores of 25-16, 25-10, and 25-14 at the A. E. Wood Coliseum on the campus of Mississippi College. With the sweep in the 7th Annual Match, the North claimed a 4-3 overall series lead. Game balls selected by the individual teams were Ashley James of Southaven for the North and Lane Jackson of Vanleave for the South. Sarah Farmer of Tupelo was selected as the North's Outstanding Player while Torie Clark of Long Beach was named the South's Outstanding Player.
- 2012 After dropping the first contest by a score of 25-20, the North mowed down the South in two straight games by scores of 25-18 and 25-14 at the A. E. Wood Coliseum at Mississippi College. With their 2nd straight win, the North added to their series lead by a 5-3 margin. Special games balls were once again awarded by team members for exhibiting best attitude, work ethic, and team spirit with Corinth's Sadie Johnson being selected by the North and Kristen Dillon chosen by the South. Sam Latza of Lewisburg was named the North's Most Outstanding Player while Breann Hedin of Long Beach was chosen as the South's Most Outstanding Player.

- 2013 The South rallied in the third and deciding set to halt the North's two-match winning streak at the A. E. Wood Coliseum at Mississippi College. After dropping the first set 16-25, the South took the second set 25-17 and then claimed the match with a close 26-24 third set victory. The South's win cut the North's series lead to 5-4. Madison "Maddy" Frazier of Resurrection was the Most Outstanding Player for the South as she delivered numerous and timely kills, blocks, digs, and service aces. The North's Most Outstanding Player was Rae Drewery of Lafayette who racked up several strings of service aces. Game balls were awarded by team members for exhibiting best attitude, work ethic, and team spirit with Lake Cormorant's Jasmine Sparks being honored by the North squad and Vancleave's Alex Scott selected by her South teammates.
- 2014 The South claimed their second match in a row over the North with a convincing three set sweep by scores of 25-14, 25-13, and 27-25 at the Hangar Dome in the Maurice Hall Activities Center on the campus of Millsaps College. The South win tied the series at 5-5 and was fueled by a second set comeback after the North had taken a 10-point lead. The South's Most Outstanding Player was Blake Mohler of Ocean Springs who recorded several service aces along with key blocks and kills for her squad. Allison Terrell of DeSoto Central was named the North's Most Outstanding Player for her play at the net. Southaven's Jordan Veal for the North and Anna Kate Karsten of Oak Grove for the South were awarded game balls as selected by team members for exhibiting best attitude, work ethic, and team spirit.
- 2015 In a thrilling high energy match, the North swept the South 25-19, 25-18, and 25-19 at the Maurice Hall Activities Center Hangar Dome on the campus of Millsaps College. With the wins, the North took over the series lead at 6-5. The turning point of the match happened in the second set as the teams set a back-and-forth pace for a 14-14 score. The North then proceeded to outscore the South 11-4 to close out the 25-18 win as the South held off two set points. The two teams were tied once again in the third set at 14 apiece before the North went on a 11-5 run to complete the sweep. The North's Most Outstanding Player was McRae Clay of Madison Central while the South's Most Outstanding Player was Genin Harkey of St. Joseph Madison. For first time in All-Star history, the game ball presentation was named in honor of veteran coaches Allison Burchyett of Lewisburg and Mike Meyers of Our Lady Academy in recognition of their efforts in creating the MAC All-Star Volleyball annual matches. The Burchyett-Meyers Game Balls are selected by team members for the players exhibiting the best attitude, work ethic, and team spirit. The first ever Burchyett-Meyers Game Balls were awarded to the North's April Reese of Starkville who had 4 blocks and 3 kills and the South's Emily Delancey of Vancleave who served up several aces.
- 2016 For the second year in a row, the North swept the South 25-17, 25-20, and 25-18 at the Maurice Hall Activities Center Hangar Dome on the campus of Millsaps College. The match win padded the overall series lead for the North to 7-5. In the first set, the teams were tied 11-11 until the North made a 6-0 run to power away for the 25-17 win. Key kills by Kapria Manning of Center Hill paced the North. In the second set, the North surged to an early lead, but the South took its first lead of the match at 11-10 on a kill by Breleigh Favre of Oak Grove. The South held the lead until the North tied the contest at 16-16 and then scored 4 out of the next 6 points to regain the advantage and eventually win 25-20. The third and final set was a seesaw battle and tied at 9-9 before the North executed a run of 16-9 rally points. The South managed to score 5 of the final 7 points, but the North closed out the match with a 25-18 final tally. Outstanding Player Awards were presented to the North's Kapria Manning of Center Hill and the South's Breleigh Favre of Oak Grove as they led their respective teams in kills. For the second year in a row, Burchyett-Meyers Game Balls were selected by team members for the players exhibiting the best attitude, work ethic, and team spirit. The North's Kelsey Glasper of Lewisburg and the South's Rylee Swilley of Hancock received the Burchyett-Meyers Game Balls for the 12th Annual MAC Volleyball Match.

2017 The South overpowered the North 25-16, 25-17, and 25-23 to snap the North's two-match winning streak. The South victory at the Maurice Hall Activities Center Hangar Dome on the campus of Millsaps College cut the North's lead in the series to 7-6. The South roared out to a huge start in the first set to establish the tone of the match by ripping off a quick 8-0 lead. The North scored in several 3-point outbursts, but the South's service game was the deciding factor in capturing the first set 25-16. In the second set, the North scored early for a 3-2 lead, but the South quickly took the next 8 of 9 rally points and cruised to a 25-17 win. In the third set, the North again jumped out to a 7-6 lead, but the South countered to tie the set at 11-11 and 14-14. Tied at 14-all, the South's service game again took charge to push the squad's lead to a 19-15 margin. The North made the rest of the set interesting as the squad narrowed the gap to 24-23 before the South closed out the sweep at 25-23. The South's Most Outstanding Player was Emma Funk of Our Lady Academy whose serves and play at the net kept the North off balance during the match. The North's Most Outstanding Player was Mattie Meine of DeSoto Central who had a strong service match with outstanding play for kills and digs. The third annual Burchyett-Meyers Game Balls were selected by team members for the players exhibiting the best attitude, work ethic and team spirit. Hancock's Destiny Hariel of the South and Warren Central's Sydney Stuart of the North received the coveted Burchyett-Meyers Game Balls.

2018 The North swept the South 25-21, 25-11, and 25-19 to increase their series lead to 8-6 at the Maurice Hall Activities Center Hangar Dome on the campus of Millsaps College. In the first set, the teams were even for most of the early rally points. Tied at 14-14, the North put together a scoring streak with 10 of the next 17 points to take a 25-21 win. In the second set, the North team exploded from the start with a 4-0 lead that expanded to a 12-6 margin. The North then captured points in 13 of the next 16 serves for the 25-11 set and match win. The third set was highly competitive with the South gaining an early advantage. With the score tied at 17-17, however, the North tallied on the next 6 serves to help complete the sweep at 25-19. The South's Most Outstanding Player was Callie Minsheu of Brandon who was a force on the serve and at the net. The North's Most Outstanding Player was Madison Central's Hallie Phelan whose play at the net and the back line led to many of the North's rally points. The South's Madison Smith of Germantown and the North's Logan Parker of Clinton received the fourth annual Burchyett-Meyers Game Balls for players selected by their teammates for exhibiting the best attitude, work ethic, and team spirit.

2019 For the second consecutive year, the North swept the South 25-18, 25-20, and 25-21 at the Maurice Hall Activities Center Hangar Dome on the campus of Millsaps College. The North sweep was the fourth in the last five years and added to the North's series lead at 9-6. In the first set, the squads were tied at 6-6 before the North scored on 6 of the next 8 rally points. After the South made a run, the North then powered out to a 22-14 lead that eventually led to a 25-18 victory. In the second set, the North was paced by 3 service aces by Lexi Graves of Hernando. Tied at 4-4, the aces led to a North scoring spree as the team took a 13-6 advantage. The South's Sydney Salter of Vancleave helped draw her team close, but the North pulled away with 4 straight points for a 23-14 lead and 25-20 win. The third set was even at 8-8 before the North edged out front by a 17-14 score. The South came back with a surge to draw close at 21-20, but the North claimed 4 of the next 5 rally points to complete the sweep at 25-19. The South's Most Outstanding Player was Sydney Salter of Vancleave whose serves and backline play kept the South in the match in all three sets. The North's Most Outstanding Player was Lake Cormorant's Isabella Beasley who registered several key kills at the net. The fifth annual Burchyett-Meyers Game Balls, as selected by their teammates for exhibiting the best attitude, work ethic, and team spirit, were awarded to the North's Raegan Stafford of DeSoto Central and the South's Kaytie Rutland of Ocean Springs.

- 2020 The North captured a record-setting third match in a row by defeating the South 25-23, 25-20, and dropping the third set to the South by a 25-22 score. The 17th Annual MAC Volleyball All-Star match was played at the Shivers Gymnasium on the campus of Pearl River Community College in Poplarville and featured the North increasing their series lead to 10-6. In the first set, the North raced out to an early 8-2 lead before the South rallied to claim 3 of the next 5 points and draw the set to back-and-forth points. The North, however, surged to a 16-9 lead after an ace by Chloe Steen of Center Hill. The South chipped away to move closer at 22-19, but the North reached set point at 24-20. The South then staved off 3 set points before the North claimed the win by a 25-23 score. In the second set, the North again rattled off a 10-2 early advantage on the strength of the serves of Erin Latham of Lewisburg who managed an ace during the run. The South then scored on 7 of the next 9 rally points to trail 12-9. Service aces by Emma Godfrey of Resurrection and Hannah Burks of Vancleave kept the South in the contest. The North countered by a run of 11 of the next 17 points to take a 23-15 lead. The South added another ace by Hannah Burks, but the North took a 24-17 lead. Once again, the South held off the North on 3 straight match points, but the North prevailed by a 25-20 tally. The South jumped out to a 7-4 lead in the third set and moved ahead 10-5 following an ace by Allison Carpenter of Ocean Springs. The North took the next 8 of 9 points and grabbed the lead at 12-10 on back-to-back aces by Sydney Horel of Germantown. The set was tied at 15-15, 19-19, and then 22-22 before the South closed out the win on three straight points for the 25-22 victory. The North's Most Outstanding Player was Chloe Steen of Center Hill who made key serves, blocks, and kills to help preserve the North series win. The South's Most Outstanding Player was Eve Mixon of Vancleave who exhibited a strong service game and kept the South in all three sets. The sixth annual Burchyett-Meyers Game Balls, as selected by their teammates for exhibiting the best attitude, work ethic, and team spirit, were awarded to the South's Camille Cottone of Our Lady Academy and the North's Megan Harris of DeSoto Central.
- 2021 The South ended the North's 3-match winning streak with a rousing three-set victory by scores of 25-22, 19-25, and 25-19 at the Maurice Hall Activities Center Hangar Dome at Millsaps College. The 18th Annual Match featured the South cutting the North's series lead to 10-7 in thrilling fashion after falling behind 12 to 3 and rallying to win the third and deciding set. In the first set, the South set the tone by jumping out front 10 to 5 before the North rallied. Key ace serves by Audrey Hamill of Pontotoc for the North helped cut the South's lead to 17-14. The South, paced by serves from Ashley Bulot of Our Lady Academy, regained the momentum and gave the South a 20-17 edge. The North countered with an ace by Kailey Gooch of Lafayette which sliced the lead to 22-21 before another ace by Bulot led the South to 3 of the last 4 rally points for a 25-22 win. In the second set, the North raced out to a quick 5 to 2 lead forcing the South to call an early time out. Serves by the South's Laura Ann Lesley of Ocean Springs brought the squads to an 8-8 tie. The teams exchanged aces by the South's Bulot and the North's Mia Griffin of Alcorn Central as the North surged ahead 14 to 13. A key kill by Ainsley Tacke of Oxford and serves by Jasmine Chacon of Lake Cormorant gave the North a 10 to 6 run to close out the set with a 25-19 North win. In the third and deciding set, the North again jumped out to an 8 to 2 lead forcing a South timeout. Aces by Kaley Rikard of Lewisburg and kills by Tacke and Gooch had the North in good shape with a 12 to 3 lead, but the South roared back by taking 10 of the next 12 points. A crowd pleasing thunderous kill by Jacia Hayes of Pearl brought the South within 2 points at 15 to 13, North. Kills by Tacke for the North and serve by Laura Ann Lesley for the South made it a back and forth battle as the South sliced the North lead to 19 to 18. Tied at 19-all, two service aces by Lesley paced the South to claim the last 10 points in a row and the match clinching 25-19 win. The North's Most Outstanding Player was Ainsley Tacke of Oxford who registered a match-high 6 kills. The South's Most Outstanding Player was Laura Ann Lesley of Ocean Springs who recorded several aces and had clutch serves in the third and deciding set. The North's Kailey Gooch of Lafayette and the South's Ashley Bulot of Our Lady Academy received the seventh annual Burchyett-Meyers Game Balls which are presented by their teammates for exhibiting the best attitude, work ethic, and team spirit.

2022 The North rallied to defeat the South in an exciting three-set win by the scores of 25-19, 22-25, and 25-21 at the Maurice Hall Activities Center Hangar Dome at Millsaps College in the 19th Annual MAC Volleyball All-Star match. The North victory increased the North's series lead to 11-7 in the event's history. In the first set, the North roared out to an early 9-2 lead highlighted with a service ace by Giselle Lopez of Belmont. The North led 14-5 after a kill by the North's Allie Hazelwood of Madison Central who was named the North's Most Outstanding Player. The South went on 6-0 and 4-1 runs featuring two kills by Gulfport's Sydney Mitchell, who was selected as the South's Most Outstanding Player, to cut the North lead to 20-18. The North, however, outscored the South 5-1 down the stretch to capture the first set 25-19. In the second set, the South raced to an early 8-2 lead which was highlighted by three consecutive service aces by Corinne Cason of Vancleave. The North countered with a 6-4 run started with a service ace by Torrey Tkach of Oxford. The North tied the set at 16-16 before the South retook the lead at 20-16 on a service ace and kill by Peyton Hoffmayer of Ocean Springs. The North would tie the set again at 20-20 on another service ace by Torrey Tkach, but the South used another service ace by Hoffmayer to go on a 5-2 run to hold on for a 25-22 win. In the third and deciding set, the teams engaged in a back-and-forth battle that featured 8 ties. The net combination of Gulfport's Sydney Mitchell and Peyton Hoffmayer of Ocean Springs added key kills for the South while The North countered with serves by Madison Central's Allie Hazelwood and New Hope's Kensley Woolbright. Tied at 19-19, the North went on a 6-2 run to close out the set at 25-21 and claim the match. The 8th Annual Burchyett-Meyers game balls were presented to the North's Kensley Woolbright of New Hope and the South's Sunni Shepherd of Brandon who exhibited the best work ethic, attitude, and team spirit as voted on by their teammates.

2023 The North claimed their second match win in a row by defeating the South 25-19, 25-20, and 25-22 at the Maurice Hall Activities Center Hangar Dome at Millsaps College in the 20th Annual MAC Volleyball All-Star match. The North win added to the North's series lead at 12-7. The South jumped out to an early lead in the first set on a service ace by Brooklyn Rushing of Northwest Rankin. The South led 10-6 after a long rally point, but the North tied the set at 10-10 on a kill by Lewisburg's Jayda Bradley. The North took an 18-12 lead on an ace serve by Addy Egner of Center Hill and kills by Ella Grace Holloway and Jayda Bradley both of Lewisburg. Holloway added another kill while Kasey Scruggs of DeSoto Central added a service ace and the North was in control 20-17. The North held off a late surge by the South led by a service ace by Morgan Mears of East Central to claim the first set by a 25-19 score. The second set was hotly contested as the teams tied the game 8 times. The North held a slight lead before Emma Levingston of Brandon scored a service ace to give the South a tie at 8-8. Key digs by Madison Jones of Oxford and kills by Ella Grace Holloway of Lewisburg and Belmont's Kerstin Moody put the North ahead 12-9, but the South rallied to tie the game at 12-12. Kills by Lindsey Smith of Lake Cormorant and Lafayette's Harmony Jackson gave the North the lead again at 17-15. Once again, the South came back to tie the game at 18-18, 19-19, and then 20-20 on a kill by Abigail Radicia of Biloxi. Lindsey Smith of Madison Central had a key kill to give the North a 22-20 lead and the North polished off the set with 5 straight points for the 25-20 win. In the third set, the North dominated the early action and took a 10-5 lead on another kill by Ella Grace Holloway of Lewisburg, who was named the North's Most Outstanding Player. The South roared back and tied the set at 15-15 on the strength of a service ace by Caroline Lowery of St. Andrews and steady net play by Brooklyn Rushing of Northwest Rankin who was selected as the South's Most Outstanding Player. The South took their first lead at 16-15, but the North retook the lead again at 19-18. Back-to-back service aces by Brandon's Emma Levingston gave the South a lead before the North tied the set at 21-21. Allie Grace Kirkland of Alcorn Central then took over the serve for the North and gave her team a late lead with a service ace and solid play down the stretch as the North took the set win by a 25-22 score. The 9th Annual Burchyett-Meyers game balls were presented to the North's Kerstin Moody of Belmont and the South's Emma Levingston of Brandon who were chosen for the awards by their teammates for exhibiting the best work ethic, attitude, and team spirit.

2024 The North won their third match in a row by defeating the South 25-22, 26-24, and 25-22 at the Dog Pound at Brandon High School at Brandon, MS, in the 20th Annual MAC Volleyball All-Star match. The North three-set victory was their second consecutive sweep and increased the North's overall series lead to 13-7. In the first set, the teams exchanged leads until the North took five straight rally points for the 8-4 lead. A long rally point gave the North a lead at 12-9, but a kill by Gulfport's Lynde "Izzi" Barnes sliced the lead to 12-10. Barnes led both squads in kills for the match and was selected as the South's Most Outstanding Player. Holding a lead at 18-16, the North struck for 4 straight points to take a 22-17 margin. Another Barnes kill and 4 straight South points had the North leading at 24-21. The South staved off two set points before the North prevailed 25-22. In the second set, the North roared out to a 5-0 lead forcing a South timeout on the strength of a service ace by Lewisburg's Claire Smith and a kill by Ingomar's Cadie Jo Byrd. The North led 11-6 after a kill by Sydney Tague of DeSoto Central, but the South took the next 12 out of 13 rally points for the lead at 18-12. The South scoring run featured kills by Izzi Barnes of Gulfport and Riley Edwards of Oak Grove plus solid serves by Carmela Coulter of Ocean Springs. Another Barnes kill gave the South the lead at 19-15, but the North rebounded with 6 of the next 7 points led by service aces from Reese McIntosh of DeSoto Central and Hallie Wright of Lewisburg. Wright's ace tied the set at 20-20 and the South led 24-22, but the North claimed the next 4 points to earn a close 26-24 win. In the third set, the South surged to an 8-2 lead on a kill by Chloe Williams of Northwest Rankin. The North rallied again to knot the set at 11-11 on a kill by Macie Phifer of Ingomar. Claire Wicker of Oxford served up an ace for the North for the 12-11 lead, but the South tied the game at 13-13 on another Izzi Barnes kill. Arianna Woods of Lake Cormorant had a service ace to give the North at 15-14 lead and a kill by Diana Wells of Germantown gave the North a 17-15 lead. The North service and net game was paced by Jania Rose of Lake Cormorant, who was named the North's Most Outstanding Player. The South rallied to tie the game at 17-17 on a kill by Talley Taylor of Northwest Rankin, but the North rattled off 4 straight points for a 21-17 lead on another ace by Reese McIntosh of DeSoto Central. The South sliced the lead down to 23-22, but the North won the final two points for the 25-22 set win and the match sweep. The 10th Annual Burchyett-Meyers game balls were presented to the North's Claire Wicker of Oxford and the South's Avery Power of Brandon who were chosen for the awards by their teammates for exhibiting the best work ethic, attitude, and team spirit.

VOLLEYBALL HISTORY

2025 The South ended the North's three match winning streak in thrilling fashion by scores of 25-21, 22-25, and 25-18 at the Dog Pound at Brandon High School at Brandon, MS, in the 22nd Annual MAC Volleyball All-Star match. The South's win sliced the North's overall series lead to 13-8. The first set featured 12 ties and the South edging the North 25-21. Tied at 15-15, the South outscored the North 10-6 to claim the win. The South was paced by Anna Hoffmayer of Ocean Springs and Sydney Allen of Gulfport along with service aces by Mia Williams of Brandon. The North attack was led by Genesis Weeks of DeSoto Central, Sofia Gonzalez of Lake Cormorant, and Kylee Garcia of Hernando who registered several kills apiece. In the second set, the South roared out to a quick 5-1 lead forcing a North timeout. The North rallied to tie the score at 11-11 behind kills by Gonzalez, Weeks, and Mary Olivia Barnes of Lewisburg. The North surged ahead on a 4-2 run, but the South evened the match at 16-16 after a long rally point. The North defense at the net took over with key block and kills and the game was tied at 19-all late in the set. The North then outscored the South 6-3 on the strength of kills by Weeks and Garcia to take the second set 25-22. In the third and deciding set, the North used momentum to take an early 5-3 lead with 3 kills by Gonzalez. Service aces by Hoffmayer and Lilly Trosclair of Gulfport evened the scored at 9-9. The North took a brief lead thanks to 2 kills by Keiley Robinson of Belmont, but the South evened the score at 12-12. With Aubrey Dale of Brandon serving 3 aces and Our Lady Academy's Myah Favre play at the net, the South went on a 13-6 run to end the set with a 25-18 win and claim the match 2 sets to 1. Favre was named the South MVP while Sofia Gonzalez of Lake Cormorant was selected as the North MVP. The North's Kylee Garcia of Hernando and the South's Sydney Allen of Gulfport received the 11th Annual Burchyett-Meyers Game Balls as selected by team members for exhibiting the best work ethic, attitude, and team spirit. Of special note was the participation of the North's Lizah Holland of Lafayette who had played in the MAC All-Star soccer game the night before the match.
